Historical tour of Leiden

Walking tour “Leiden and the Arab World: 400 years of history”

The walking tour will make us discover 400 years of relations between Leiden and the Arab world, like for instance the houses of some of the great Leiden Arabist scholars. It will take us along places like the Hortus <<http://www.hortusleiden.nl/>> and other major Leiden landmarks.

Cruising tour through the Leiden canals with a canal boat.

Leiden was established around the 12th century at the point where the Rivers Rijn, Vliet and Mare run in each other. Leiden became quickly an important trade centre and had to keep digging new canals to keep up with its rapid expansion. The original form of the inner city has, for the most part, been preserved until today. The cruising tour gives a unique perspective on this beautiful network of waterways and historical buildings.

Visit of either the Dutch National Museum of Antiquities or National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden

Leiden is the capital city of museums: Leiden has 13 fantastic museums all in walking distance of one another. Dinosaur skeletons, masterpieces by Rembrandt and Lievens, Wajang puppets from Indonesia, the medical history of bloodletting and breast prosthetics, an Egyptian temple, treasures from Japan and everything about the siege and relief of Leiden: you will find all of this and more in Leiden's museums.
